

Directors Profile

Dr Israel Raju did his Master Degrees both in Commerce and Management Studies (M.Com., M.B.A.) from Andhra University and also obtained Ph.D degree from Andhra University for the Thesis entitled “Human Resource Training: A study of front line managers in select PSUs” in 2003.

He rendered more than 20 years of teaching and research experience and guided 3 Ph.D and 11 M.Phil candidates in the field of Finance and HR Management. Dr Raju is a Life member of National HRD Net work, Indian Commerce Association, Indian Accounting Association and Inspira Research Association (IRA).

He presented more than 60 research papers/articles in various conferences, seminars and some of them are published in national and international reputed journals. Presently working as Professor and Director Noble Institute of Science and Technology (NIST) which is affiliated to Andhra University.

